

Disney Dining Suggestions for Preschoolers

Your magical vacation to the Walt Disney World Resort is about to begin! We know it is tough to pick the best restaurants for your Disney World vacation. We are happy to help you with these suggestions on the most popular restaurants at Disney World for your family. We will also book all of your dining reservations for your vacation. Once you are ready to book your restaurants, email me your tentative dates, tentative times, and restaurant locations.

Top Restaurants Suggestions for your Family:

Disney's Animal Kingdom Lodge

- Sanaa - The newer restaurant at Walt Disney World is a great one! The most exciting aspect of this restaurant at Kidani Village is the ceiling to floor view of the animals in the Savanna. The African menu is unique with entree items including chicken, shrimp, and lamb chops cooked in the Tandoor Oven. Some other specialties include spice crusted game hen, banana leaf wrapped fish, New York Strip, ribs, and more. Even the desserts are unique including a dessert sampler, carrot halvah, vanilla coconut rice pudding, and even butter cake with orange and syrup. It has unique menu items and an incredible view! For the children in your group, they will still enjoy cheese pizza, chicken nuggets, fish, or macaroni and cheese. The regular kid friendly favorites!

Disney's Beach Club Resort

- Cape May Cafe Restaurant - This is one of the most popular restaurants at Disney World for families featuring a Clam Bake. This all-you-can-eat buffet, is a sea lovers dream with menu items like clams, mussels, Fish du Jour, clam chowder, and peel and eat shrimp. You can also enjoy other menu items like prime rib, pasta, pork ribs, and so much more. Cape May is walking distance from Epcot and just a quick watertaxi from Disney's Hollywood Studios. After your dinner, you can relax on the sandy beaches at Disney's Beach Club Resort at the campfire singalong and marshmallow roast or watch movies on the beach.

Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa

- 1900 Park Fare - The best restaurant for Princess Character Dining is 1900 Park Fare at Disney's Grand Floridian Resort & Spa. This restaurant serves an all-you-can-eat dinner and dessert buffet. This restaurant is a very popular choice because the food and entertainment is the best for the Princess Dining. This restaurant features Cinderella, Prince Charming, and the Royal Family including the Step Mother and Step Sisters. There is lots of fun entertainment with the Step Sisters and the little Princesses always love meeting Cinderella and Prince Charming. The menu includes Chef prepared pasta, prime rib, mojo marinated turkey, stuffed pork loin, salmon with dill sauce, chicken marsala, and much more. Many of the little Princesses and Princes also dress up for this Character Dinner. This restaurant is a quick monorail ride away from Epcot and Magic Kingdom Park.

Disney's Polynesian Resort

- 'Ohanas Breakfast - For breakfast, 'Ohanas is one of the best menu and Character Dining locations. The breakfast is served family style (the bring it to your table all together and your family digs in) with typical breakfast favorites including scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, fresh fruit, and potatoes. This restaurant also serves incredible pastries and Hawaiian bread. 'Ohanas is a popular Character Dining for kids of all ages. You will see Mickey Mouse, Lilo, Stitch, Goofy, and Pluto. This is a great quality time with your favorite Disney Characters without the crowds of the Theme Parks.
- 'Ohanas Dinner - 'Ohanas is also very popular for dinner! The menu and atmosphere is very popular for kids and adults. This restaurant sits right on the Seven Seas Lagoon with a view of Cinderella's Castle at Magic Kingdom. You can watch the Magic Kingdom fireworks and Electrical Water Pageant from the beach at Disney's Polynesian Resort, after your dinner. If you have a late dinner, you can also watch the Wishes Fireworks in the restaurant. Disney pipes in the music and show from Wishes, so you can enjoy the amazing fireworks show as you dine at 'Ohanas. This is an all-you-can-eat Hawaiian meal with lots of appetizers, breads, veggies, seafood, steak, and pork. This meal is served family style with live entertainment. The view is beautiful and the food is excellent. This is a good restaurant during a day at Magic Kingdom, since you can just hop on the monorail from Magic Kingdom to 'Ohanas.

Magic Kingdom Park

- Crystal Palace - This restaurant serves breakfast, lunch and dinner with the Winnie the Pooh Characters. Crystal Palace is an all-you-can-eat buffet with the best dessert bar at Disney World. This is one of the most popular Character Dining at Walt Disney World, even for adults. Some of the popular lunch and dinner menu items include salmon, beef tenderloin, pasta salad, curry chicken, citrus flank steak, rotisserie chicken, and much more. If you find a favorite menu item, ask your server for the recipe. Disney will either bring you a recipe card with the recipe or email it to you. These Chefs love their entrees and like to share it with the guests!

Epcot

- San Angel Inn in Mexico - Imagine eating tasting Mexican dishes inside a pyramid as you watch boats glide! That is exactly what you will experience at San Angel Inn at Mexico. This locals favorite has entertainment for the whole family with the Mexico attraction, Gran Fiesta Tour, strolling musicians, and marketplace activities while you dine on tasting Mexican dishes. This restaurant is popular for kids and adults. The menu items include classic Mexican entrees with chicken, beef tenderloin, mahi mahi, and more.
- Biergarten at Germany - Join a few of your newest friends as you sit together family style, to enjoy German food and live entertainment. Biergarten is a popular restaurant in Germany at Epcot for kids and adults. This restaurant is an all-you-can-eat menu with entree items like salmon, roasted chicken, pork, meatballs, sausage, and more all themed after German favorites.
- Coral Reef Restaurant in The Seas - Enjoy a meal "under the sea" at Coral Reef! This restaurant is all themed after the beautiful coral reefs with a floor to ceiling view of The Seas aquarium. You may even get lucky and spot Mickey Mouse swimming in The Seas along with your favorite sharks, rays, and fish. Coral Reef is a popular choice for kids of all ages for lunch or dinner. The menu includes popular surf and turf including New York strip, crab legs, salmon, mahi mahi, catfish and more.

Disney's Hollywood Studios

- 50's Prime Time Cafe - Sit in a old 50's kitchen while you watch popular sitcoms from the 1950's. Your meal is served by your "Mom" or "Cousin" while you enjoy a relaxing lunch or dinner. The menu is country cooking with popular items like meatloaf, grilled chicken, fried chicken, pot roast, salmon, and more. This restaurant has the best fried chicken and meatloaf at Disney World. They also have a delightful arrange of desserts to please everyone. Be sure to eat your entire plate, so you can get a sticker from your "Mom."
- Sci-Fi Dine In Theater - Sit in an old convertible car in a Drive In Movie Theater (inside) as you watch old sci-fi clips on the screen. You have to see this restaurant to believe it! Kids of all ages love Sci-Fi for the atmosphere and the food. This restaurant serves lunch and dinner. Some of the popular menu items include penne pasta, marinated tuna, baby back ribs, sandwiches, and more. They also have some incredible milk shakes and ice cream sundaes.
- Play & Dine – Preschoolers love Disney Junior and you can meet your favorite characters up close at Hollywood & Vine with a fun breakfast or lunch called Play & Dine. This is an all-you-can-eat buffet. You will sing and dance with your favorite characters from Disney Junior.

Disney's Animal Kingdom Theme Park

- Rainforest Cafe - This restaurant is a popular restaurant for kids and adults with a fun rainforest theme. The whole restaurant is themed after a rainforest with animals, aquariums, and waterfalls right inside the restaurant. Rainforest Cafe features a wide variety of menu items including hamburgers, seafood, steaks, sandwiches, salads, and desserts. They also have alot of themed drinks. This restaurant also has a location at Downtown Disney Marketplace.

Downtown Disney

- Wolfgang Puck Cafe - Enjoy delicious menu items created by the famous chef, Wolfgang Puck at the Wolfgang Puck Cafe at Downtown Disney Westside. This restaurant is a popular choice for kids and adults with menu items like sushi, kettle chips, spinach salad, butternut squash, wood fired pizza, macadamia crusted chicken, BBQ rubs, salmon, pumpkin ravioli, and much more. There are lots of different menu items for every taste. For dessert, you will enjoy chocolate cake, ice cream, carrot cake, key lime pie, and tasty coffees. You can even request outdoor seating that overlooks the lake at Wolfgang Puck Cafe.

These are the most popular restaurants at Disney World for families with younger children. Once you are ready to book your restaurant reservations, email me your restaurant selections and details and I am happy to book these for your Disney World vacation.